

Between Five Bells

2018 Rosé

About B5B: Between Five Bells are the last three words in the first stanza of Kenneth Slessor's famous poem, Five Bells. The poem is understood to tell the tale of the death of Joe Lynch, a friend of the poets, and is set on/in/around (it gets confusing) Sydney Harbour. A beautiful lyrical poem, well worth a read and central to the way we think about the B5B wines.

The Wine: For no other reason than to be delicious. This is the fourth release of our ROSÉ. When it should be drunk is up to you, probably not long after it comes into your possession.

Made from free run Pinot Noir we have combined some skin contact Chardonnay into the blend. As we've racked the juice to 500l barrels we topped with Sangiovese & Pinot Meunier saignée to help build a velvety, silky mouth feel with spicy overtones.
